Physically & Spiritually Touching Lives

March 3, 2026

Dear Friends and Faithful Supporters,

As we have watched the events of this past week unfold, we have been reflecting on Daniel 8:5–6:

“As I was considering, suddenly a male goat came from the west across the surface of the whole earth, without touching the ground; and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. Then he came to the ram that had two horns... and ran at him with furious power.”

When we hear modern military operations described with powerful names like “Epic Fury,” it naturally causes us to pause. It makes us wonder: are we witnessing events that echo what the prophets spoke of so long ago? Scripture was written more than 2,500 years ago, yet at times it feels strikingly relevant to the world we see today.

While we approach these moments with humility and careful discernment, we are reminded that God is sovereign over nations, leaders, and history itself. Nothing takes Him by surprise. Whether we are living in the final days or simply another pivotal season in history, our responsibility remains unchanged.

We are called to be watchful. We are called to be ready. We are called to serve, to listen, and to obey the Lord wholeheartedly. These are serious times, but they are also opportunities for the Church to stand firm, shine brightly, and point others to Christ.

Thank you for continuing to stand with us in prayer and faithful support. Your partnership enables us to continue proclaiming the Gospel, strengthening believers, and equipping others to walk faithfully with the Lord in every season. Let us remain watchful, steadfast, and fully surrendered—trusting that God is at work and that He will use His people for His glory.

With gratitude and faith,

Rod & Debbie Wray
